THE ESTATE OF [REDACTED],

VERIFIED NOTICE
OF CLAIMCOUNTY OF ONONDAGA and
ONONDAGA COUNTY SHERIFF'S DEPARTMENT.TO: THE COUNTY OF ONONDAGA
THE ONONDAGA COUNTY SHERIFF'S DEPARTMENT

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that The Estate of [REDACTED], by its appointed administrator, Carissa A. Albham, hereby makes claim against the County of Onondaga and the Onondaga County Sheriff's Department, and in support of such claim states as follows:

1. The name and the post office address of each claimant and the claimant's attorney:

Claimant: Administrator, Carissa A. Albham, 115 West Pleasant St., Apt.: C-1, Manlius, NY 13104. A true and correct copy of the Certificate of Appointment of Administrator for Carissa A. Albham is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

Counsel for Claimant: Weisberg & Zukher, PLLC., David E. Zukher, Esq., 109 South Warren Street, Suite 711, Syracuse, NY 13202.

2. The nature of the claim: For severe personal injury, pain and suffering, wrongful death, assault, battery, intentional infliction of emotional distress, negligent infliction of emotional distress, negligent hiring/retention/training, excessive use of force 42 U.S.C. Section 1983, including, but not limited to, Monell liability, and vicarious liability.

3. The time when; the place where; and the manner in which the claim arose:

On March 4, 2021, at 4372 Apulia Road, Jamesville, NY, County of Onondaga, Mrs. Carissa A. Albham, the natural mother of [REDACTED] (DOB: [REDACTED]), a seventeen (17) year-old minor child (hereinafter [REDACTED]), called the St. Joseph's Hospital Health Center, the Comprehensive Psychiatric Emergency Program, to report that [REDACTED] was continuing to experience a mental health crisis. At approximately 12:24 p.m. of the same day, Mrs. Albham called the police for assistance, so that her son could be brought in for treatment safely, after [REDACTED] fled by car from a mobile crisis team dispatched by the St. Joseph's Hospital Health Center.

Upon information and belief, three (3) different police agencies responded to the 911 call made by Mrs. Albahm, including, the DeWitt Police, Investigators Lucas Byron and Matthew Menard; the Onondaga County Sherriff's Office, Sergeant Amy Bollinger; and the NYS Police, State Trooper Corey Fike. Upon information and belief, dispatchers, family members, and others on the scene repeatedly warned all of the officers involved that [REDACTED] had a history of mental illness; had/owned an airsoft/pellet gun, commonly referred to as a BB Gun; and had prior threatened suicide by "cop."

Less than an hour after arriving on the scene, at approximately, 1:25 p.m., during their pursuit of [REDACTED], the aforementioned police officers, despite knowing the foregoing, repeatedly discharged their service weapons and shot [REDACTED] multiple times, thereby, causing his death. In doing so, the aforementioned police officers/agencies carelessly, negligently, and/or recklessly caused Judson's death. Specifically, the police failed to establish proper communications with each other; [REDACTED]; [REDACTED] family; and the St. Joseph's Comprehensive Psychiatric Mobile Crisis Outreach Team which was present on the scene; failed to properly de-escalate the situation; failed to deploy/dispatch properly trained crisis intervention officers; failed to employ proper de-escalation techniques to defuse the situation; failed to employ/utilize body cameras; failed to establish a proper chain of command; failed to communicate with one-another to develop a viable and safe plan/objective; and failed to consider/read the dispatch information available. Upon information and belief, pursuant to Executive Order No. 147, the State Attorney General of the State of New York is currently conducting a criminal investigation as to the conduct of the police/agencies involved, the results of which investigation have not been made public.

4. The items of damage or injuries are:

As a result of the careless, negligent, and reckless conduct of the Onondaga County Sherriff's Office, Sergeant Amy Bollinger, the injuries suffered by [REDACTED] include, but are not limited to, severe and permanent personal injury, great pain and suffering, wrongful death, hospital and medical bills, as well as funeral expenses, the exact amounts of which are not known at this time. In addition thereto, [REDACTED] was of employable age and, upon information and belief, was employed and/or employable at the time of his death. As such, claimant seeks all economic damages for lost future earnings and benefits, as well as all attorney's fees and costs.

That said claim and demand is hereby presented for adjustment and payment.

PLEASE TAKE FURTHER NOTICE that by reason of the premises, in default of the COUNTY OF ONONDAGA and THE ONONDAGA COUNTY SHERIFF'S DEPARTMENT to pay to the claimant any sum within the time limited for compliance with this demand by the said entities by the statutes in such cases made and provided, claimant intends to commence an action in the Supreme Court of the State of New York against the COUNTY OF ONONDAGA and THE ONONDAGA COUNTY SHERIFF'S DEPARTMENT to recover a money judgment, together with interest and costs.
